Art Unit: 2153

1. Claims 1-11 are still pending for examination, and claims 12-13 are newly presented for examination.

2. The amendment filed 12/13/04 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132 because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132 states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: a) the specification does not mention or disclose at all that a user does not create the electronic mail message; b) the applicant fails to point out where the newly added feature is disclosed in the specification.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

3. The rejections are respectfully maintained and incorporated by reference as set forth in the last office action.

4. Applicant's arguments filed 12/12/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In the remark, the applicant argues that neither Chrabaszcz nor Rollins addresses messages not created by the user. In reply, this is a new matter, which is not supported by the original disclosure. On the contrary, the original disclosure discloses that a user has composed a message (e.g., see page 4 of the specification).

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2153

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The references are cited in the Form PTO-892 for the applicant's review.
